

Problem Statements

Sudha, the only daughter of their parents, was taking care of them since they were aged and affected by heart problems. Suddenly, she got an offer from her office to go abroad. Since she will not be able to stay with them, how will she be able to look after them?

Develop a product or a prototype that could take care of their health, providing medicine periodically.

-Sruthi S

Vimal is celebrity fame who loves his daddy so much, his father has high blood pressure and his is a diabetic. Before Vimal's celebrity life, he was the one who take cares of his father, now he has no time to look after his father.

Design a systematic tool to help vimal.

-Akshaya C V

Problem Statements

People with intellectual disabilities are at increased risk for poor health outcomes and health disparities. The lack of health care provider training on disability has been highlighted recent times. Provide a suitable solution to help people who needs medical assistance.

- Bharathi Priya M

Mani, an ex-military personnel maintains good health and are fully able to function both physically and mentally well. However, the biological effects of aging do lead to more physical and mental health problem. In his later period he is not able to do daily living activity without an assistant. Suggest a suitable solution to help him.

- Vishnupriya P